

C-STAR FUNDING OPPORTUNITY – NEW!

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

HSI Initiatives, Assessment & Research, and RII's Societal Impacts, are pleased to offer a new funding opportunity for the University of Arizona (UA) community, called "Completion Strategies Tested for Acceleration & Refinement" (C-STAR). The goal of this new opportunity is to identify strategies, programs, and practices that positively contribute to degree completion at the UA.

Awarded projects will begin, extend, or more robustly evaluate UA programs and activities through a collaboration with the Assessment & Research data analyst team to answer the following:

1. WHAT: To what extent does this strategy, program, or practice contribute to degree completion?
2. WHO: For whom does this strategy work? Is this program especially impactful for particular groups of students?
3. HOW: Under what circumstances is this strategy impactful?

ELIGIBILITY

This internal funding program is open to all faculty, staff and administrators across all disciplines and ranks at the UA.

TIMELINE

- Proposal due: June 27, 2025
- Award notifications: July 25, 2025
- Performance Period: September 1, 2025 – August 31, 2026

AWARD AMOUNT

Funding for this competition will be used to hire a Graduate Associate with expertise in data analytics to work with A & R data analysts and each awarded team. In addition, up to $2,000 in project related expenses may be requested.
